Saif Ali Khan showcases his dancing skills to woo new bride Tara This time he has decided not to take any other test. In Phoonk, Milind Gadgkar, who directed Ram-Gopal Varma's Phoonk, tells us about its making . This movie was released in 2008 and was a blockbuster hit in both the Indian box office and throughout the world. However, five years have passed and Ram-Gopal Varma's Phoonk 2 released the sequel to the hit supernatural horror film. The movie Phoonk 2, which is directed by Milind Gadgkar, has already started gaining huge traction as it features one of Bollywood's most loved stars. Pravesh Sharma, who was also in Phoonk, is once again play the lead role in this film and is said to be a 'blockbuster' and has added to the craze of the film. The opening scene of the film, which reveals the death of Tara's father, is said to be one of the biggest romantic scenes of this year. Just days ago, producer Praveen Nischol and Milind Gadgkar, director of Phoonk and Phoonk 2, bought the house where Tara lives. The neighbours believe the new family to be from the US and is going to be staying there for some time. The film makers now plan to shoot around 50 days of the film and surely it would be a hit, Milind says Phoonk 2 is a much better film than its predecessor. In Phoonk 2, a recently married couple move into a house where Tara lives with her father. Her father had earlier survived a fatal car accident. On the day of their arrival, when they visit the house, a sinister and eerie atmosphere prevails. Bollywood superstar Sudeep plays the male lead along with actress Tara Sutaria. She is known for films like Haseena, Shola aur Shabnam, Bala, and others. The film is set in Mumbai and is influenced by the famous horror film, Poltergeist. In Poltergeist, an apartment is haunted and ghosts enter the house, leaving their imprints on furniture, doors, and walls. A lot of money is invested in making the film, especially on sets. The Yule Log is on the menu at Morey's Piers, and Dean Morey himself is encouraging friends and guests to make the holiday a memorable one by strolling through "A Thousand Years of Fire." Morey's Piers is open daily from Thanksgiving to New Year's Day, and this year it will be welcoming holiday guests for thousands of hours. "A Thousand Years of Fire" will be the theme of the event, which will see guests enjoy food, drinks, music and decorations over a 10-day period in January. Morey's Piers has recorded two of the biggest names in the entertainment industry to headline the show: the Florida Georgia Line and Jason Derulo. "It's going to be a great time of fun, fellowship," said Morey, "and it's the best way to ring in the New Year." One of the other unforgettable highlights of this year's Yule Log is the addition of food trucks, which will be rotating in with local vendors year-round. The first f678ea9f9e
